UPDATES FROM THE DIRECTOR'S DESK

Dear Families, Staff, and Volunteers,

As we reflect on this past year, I am filled with gratitude for the incredible dedication, compassion, and support you have shown to our residents. Your commitment has made a meaningful difference in their lives and created a community of care and kindness that we are proud to be part of.

Thank you for sharing your time, talents, and hearts with us throughout the year. It is because of you that we can provide a warm and welcoming environment for those we serve.

Wishing you and your loved ones' peace, joy, and good health during this Holiday Season and throughout the coming year. May it be filled with happiness and cherished moments.

With heartfelt appreciation,

Nancy Nesbitt-Boucher, Executive Director

A GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

During the month of November, we celebrated Sherwood Park Manor's 50-year milestone anniversary in style! We would like to thank all of the staff, families, and community members who came to celebrate. A huge thank you also goes out to Joanne Morehouse for spending countless hours preparing and decorating the event hall. It was truly a beautiful celebration.

EDDIE SPAGHETTI

Ed and Jane Vanderbaaren hosted another fantastic evening of artwork, delicious food, and great conversation at the Brockville Country Club in support of Sherwood Park Manor, raising $30,000. We are overwhelmed with gratitude for their generosity and the support of all attendees.

REDEVELOPMENT UPDATE

Construction on the new building is coming along nicely. The front entrance and delivery area have been paved, and mechanical equipment is being installed in the penthouse area. Each floor is being drywalled, bringing us another step closer to move-in day!

DINING REMINDER

We love to see families come in to visit their loved ones, but we must provide a friendly reminder that family members and paid support workers are not allowed to sit in the dining room during resident mealtimes. If you or a paid worker are coming to visit at mealtime, please call ahead to get set up in the chapel! December 24th is the resident and staff holiday luncheon, so there will be no meals available for purchase.

INSPIRING HOLIDAY CHEER

The WAG team has sponsored a family in need of gifts and groceries for Christmas. There is a donation box outside the main office, as well as a list of items the children have put on their wish list. Please make any donations by December 10th. If you are wrapping gifts, please label which child it is for.
